Subject :- PAYMENT OF FAMILY PENSION IN THE CASE OF EMPLOYEES WHO REMAIN MISSING FOR 12 MONTHS

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the subject noted above and to state that if an employee remains missing or unheard of for a period of 12 months to the satisfaction of the department concerned, family pension may be allowed to his/her heirs as admissible under the prescribed rules subject to the condition that the missing employee is not facing any disciplinary proceedings under the Punjab Civil Servants (E&D) Rules, 1975 and provided that :-

- i) The spouse of the missing person, claiming to be entitled to the pensionary benefits of the missing person shall, before such benefits are paid, guarantee, through affidavit or as the pensionary authority may require, the re-payment of pensionary benefits to the missing person if subsequently he appears and makes any claim thereto.
- ii) In the event of the appearance of such missing person, the pensionary authority shall not be responsible for re-payment of any pensionary benefits to the missing person which have already been paid to his spouse/family members, and the latter shall personally be responsible for satisfying the claim of the missing person.
